

Before the Dummy Race:

$10 entry fee for sign-up until 3pm on Friday, March 17th by email to rentalshop@skisummitlake.com

$20 entry fee for sign-up on the race day!

Be creative with your Dummy but keep the following rules in mind:

Dummy Downhill Rules:

- No humans or animals can be included as part of the Dummy.
- No remote controls or human contact with the Dummy is allowed after launch.
- Dimensions - Not higher than 6 feet, lower than 3 feet or wider than 3 feet at the base. Participants must be able to pull/push the entry to the top of start area. (Only one person may go to the top of the course to launch the Dummy. If a small child is going to launch the Dummy they must be accompanied by an adult.)
- Dummies are only allowed to be mounted on 1 pair of skis or 1 snowboard and can only have 4 points of connection with the skis/board.
- Dummies must resemble a human, an animal, an alien, motorized vehicle, etc; keep it family friendly. Disqualification for any dummy deemed offensive by the judge(s).
- All Dummies must pass an inspection before they can be taken to the top of the course.
- Owners are responsible for retrieving all Dummy parts after race.
- No FIRE or FIREWORKS, no pyrotechnics or motorized parts allowed on the dummy.

REMEMBER - FUN & SAFETY!

Judging:

All entries must be ready for judging by 1pm at the bottom of the T-bar lift and must be judged before they can go to the top staging area. Once they are judged and inspected, they can proceed to starting point of the race.

Points will be awarded for:

- Creativity
- Realism or being lifelike
- Durability or survival of the competition track (including a little jump)
- Distance/ Speed
- Trueness of the run

CASH PRIZE FOR THE WINNER!!